

Fritz Weis is a graduate of Claremont McKenna College and Claremont Graduate University. His thirty-two year career in higher education in Claremont includes being President of Scripps College, Chief Financial Officer and Treasurer at Claremont McKenna College, Scripps College, and Claremont Graduate University and Planned Giving Director at Scripps College. He has taught accounting at Claremont McKenna College, Scripps College, Claremont Graduate University, University of Southern California, and California State Polytechnic University, Pomona. Fritz is retired from college administration but continues to consult with Prager and Co., LLC. on matters of financial analysis.